Human Design is a synthesis of ancient wisdom and modern science.

It combines astrology, the I Ching, Kabbalah, the chakra system, quantum physics and genetics to give you a unique energetic blueprint.

Your chart is a map of how you're designed to move through life — not who you should be, but who you already are.

It shows you your energy type, how you make decisions, what environments support you, and how you're here to make an impact.

THE AUTHORITIES

YOUR INNER COMPASS.

Your Authority is how you make aligned decisions. It's your inner guidance system — not your mind, not your emotions, and not what anyone else thinks.

Each Type has a specific way of knowing what's right for them. When you honour your Authority, life flows. When you don't, it creates resistance, confusion and frustration.

Your Profile is the role you're here to play. It's how your personality and purpose work together. Each Profile carries a unique perspective, way of learning and way of impacting the world.

There's no better or worse — just different.

SAME HUMAN.
BOLDER TRUTH.

1/3 THE INVESTIGATOR

You investigate, explore and experiment to know what's right for you. You learn best through experience and build deep, practical knowledge.

1/4 THE CONNECTOR

You're cautious and thoughtful, moving forward once you understand. You're warm and authentic, and when you feel safe, you naturally influence others through your network.

2/4 THE ENIGMA

You're creative, magnetic and often private. You have a big heart but reveal yourself slowly. The right people recognise and value your natural gifts.

2/5 THE CATALYST

You can make a big impact and bring real value to others. You need your freedom, yet you're often called to lead. Some see you as a saviour, others as a rebel — either way, you're here to make a difference.

3/5 THE PROBLEM SOLVER

You're resilient, adaptable and determined. You learn through trial and error, then share what you've experienced to help others. You push boundaries and speak up when others won't.

3/6 THE TRAILBLAZER

You try, you learn, you rise. Life can be messy, but your experiences give you wisdom that inspires others. You may move between getting involved and stepping back, finding balance over time.

4/1 THE INDIVIDUALIST

You're unique, independent and set in your ways. You benefit from strong relationships but must always follow your own path. You may feel pressure to conform, but your strength comes from staying true to you.

4/6 THE HUMANITARIAN

You're compassionate and visionary, with a desire to make a positive difference. You have great people skills but may fear rejection. Find your people — they'll support your wisdom and leadership.

5/1 THE LEADER

You're thorough, practical and a natural problem solver. Others often look to you for guidance. You project a strong image, but only a few get to see the real you.

5/2 THE HERMIT LEADER

You're a reluctant hero — hard to catch but capable of big impact. You need solitude, but you're here to share your gifts. Self-motivation is key to bring your insights to the world.

6/2 THE QUEEN

You're wise beyond your years and a determined leader. You love exploring, value trust and avoid drama. You may be social yet reserved, with high standards for yourself and others.

6/3 THE ADVENTURER

Adventure and change are part of your journey. You learn through experience, moving between engagement and detachment. Life may disappoint you at times, but you find the greatest growth through it all.

THE NINE CENTERS

THE ENERGETIC CORE OF YOUR DESIGN.

Your chart has nine energy centers. Each center processes a different type of energy. They can be Defined (colored in) or Open (white). This creates a unique way you experience yourself, others and the world.

Both are valuable. Neither is better.

SAME HUMAN.
BOLDER TRUTH.

HEAD

Inspiration, questions, mental pressure.
What am I curious about?

AJNA

Ideas, concepts, mental processing.
What makes sense?

THROAT

Expression, communication, action.
How do I share what I know?

EGO / HEART

Willpower, commitment, value.
What do I value?

G CENTER

Identity, direction, love.
Who am I? Where am I going?

SACRAL

Life force, energy, response.
What lights me up?

SPLEEN

Instinct, intuition, survival.
What feels safe?

SOLAR PLEXUS

Emotions, emotional intelligence.
What do I feel?

ROOT

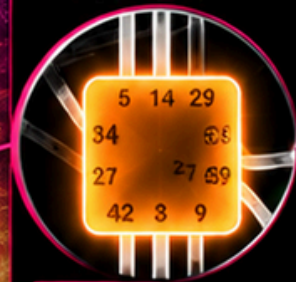

Pressure, drive, motivation.
What moves me?

DEFINED CENTER

CONSISTENT ENERGY

A defined center is colored in on your chart. It means you have consistent access to this energy. You process it in a reliable and stable way. It's part of your energetic DNA.

STEADY.
CONSISTENT.
YOURS.

EXAMPLE

A defined Sacral means you have a reliable source of life force energy. You know what lights you up and what doesn't through your gut response.

OPEN CENTER

AMPLIFIES & ABSORBS

An open center is white on your chart. It means you're designed to be flexible in this energy. You amplify, absorb and are influenced by the energy of others. It can feel inconsistent, but it gives you huge wisdom, perspective and empathy.

FLEXIBLE.
RECEPTIVE.
WISE.

EXAMPLE

An open Solar Plexus means you amplify other people's emotions. You're not here to carry emotional waves, but to feel, observe and gain deep empathy.

THE GATES & CHANNELS

ENERGY FLOWS IN UNIQUE WAYS.
SOME STAND ALONE. SOME CONNECT.

Gates are specific points of energy. Channels are created when two gates connect, forming a consistent flow between two centres. Together they create how your energy expresses, your talents and your unique purpose in the world.

A gate is a potential. A channel is a commitment.

SAME HUMAN.
BOLDER TRUTH.

WHAT IS A GATE?

A gate is a single point of energy (one number) that activates a specific quality, theme or potential.

It's like a door — it can open, but on its own it doesn't create a consistent flow.

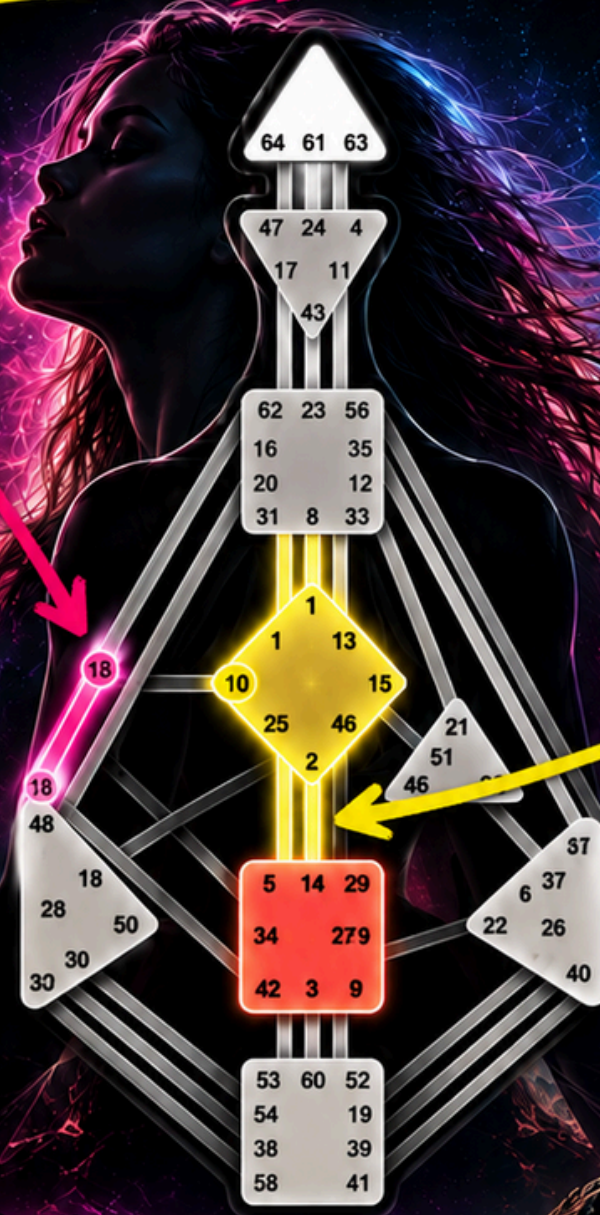

Gates can be conscious (personality/black) or unconscious (design/red).

A gate may be active in a defined centre or hang out in an open centre.

EXAMPLE OF A GATE (HANGING GATE)

Gate 18 is active (coloured) but there is no matching gate 58, so the channel is not complete.

This is a hanging gate — a potential, a spark, a sensitivity.

WHAT IS A CHANNEL?

A channel is created when two gates (one in each centre) are both active and connect with a coloured line.

This creates a consistent flow of energy between the two centres. Channels are your defined strengths, talents and reliable ways of expressing energy in the world.

EXAMPLE OF A CHANNEL (DEFINED CHANNEL)

Channel 34-10 is defined (both gates are active), creating a full channel of consistent energy between the Sacral and G Center.

This gives a reliable way of processing and expressing your intuition in the moment.

A GATE IN A DEFINED CENTRE

- You have a consistent way of expressing this energy.
- It's part of your reliable nature.
- You've got ongoing access to this quality.

A GATE IN AN OPEN CENTRE

- You don't have consistent access to this energy.
- You may feel and amplify this energy in others.
- It can be a source of wisdom, but also confusion if you don't recognise it's not yours to hold all the time.

DIFFERENT AURAS.
DEEPER POTENTIAL.

ELECTROMAGNETICS

Shows the natural attraction and energetic pull between you. These activations can create a magnetic draw that feels instant and strong — physically, emotionally or both.

COMPROMISE

Reveals where you naturally meet in the middle. These are areas where each of you brings something the other needs, creating balance, support and mutual growth.

DOMINANCE

Highlights where one person's energy is consistently influencing the other. This can create powerful support — or challenges if unconscious.

BOTH OPEN CENTRES

Shows where you both have an open centre. These areas can amplify each other's conditioning and create vulnerability — but also deep understanding and compassion.

COMPANIONSHIP

Reveals shared definition and natural synergy. These are the areas where you "get" each other, often creating a strong sense of ease, belonging and friendship.

ATTRACTION CHANNELS

Shows the energy channels that create chemistry, curiosity and desire. These can spark powerful connection and keep the relationship exciting.

COMPROMISED CHANNELS

Happen when each of you brings one gate to the same channel. It can create a push-pull dynamic, where you activate each other but experience inconsistency or tension.

COMMUNICATION DYNAMICS

Shows how you naturally exchange ideas, express yourselves and process information. It can highlight flow, friction or misunderstandings — and how to work with them.

RELATIONSHIP RED FLAGS

Brings awareness to potential challenges, such as power struggles, conditioning, closed dynamics or repeating patterns — so you can make conscious choices instead of getting stuck.

GROWTH POTENTIAL

Shows where the relationship can help you both evolve, heal old patterns and experience a deeper level of love, acceptance and alignment.
